APRIL 16, 2023
DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

MISSION: Holy Family Faith Community is called to live out the mission of Jesus. Empowered by God through Baptism and centered in the Eucharist, we strive to proclaim the good news of salvation, build community, serve the needs of others, celebrate our faith, and welcome all in one spirit of Christ.

From the Pastor:

Holy Week, Easter Vigil and Easter Celebrations: By the grace of God and cooperation of dedicated volunteers, the Holy Week, Easter Vigil and Easter celebrations turned out well. We have done well. Although the attendance at Maundy Thursday, Good Friday Service, and Easter Vigil Mass could have been better, on Easter Sunday the 9:00 am Mass was full with people filling in the side aisles as well.

I would like to acknowledge Cheryl Buckman ... and her team for their commendable services and Linda St. Juliana, Aaron Hays, Jonathan Zielinski and the choirs for their excellent music and singing at during Holy Week, the Easter Vigil, Easter Sunday Masses, and Services. I would also like to acknowledge Alejandro, Isaac, Dayanara Gonzalez and Reagan Carroll, the Mass Servers, for their wonderful service. I thank Jamie Hoover, Mark Novak and Sue Sculley for their special assistance. Special thanks to our Sacristans who worked to set up for Holy Week and Easter. Very special thanks to Patty Miller and Renee Fisher for getting everything organized for the Holy Week and Easter celebrations.

Good Friday Live Stations: I would like to express my appreciation and thanks to the Albright group for presenting a touching live stations of the cross at noon on Good Friday. Chuck Cormier..... who did the role of Jesus and expressed the anguish and pain in a real way while Mark Novak and Shawn Clark did the role of soldiers very well. My thanks and appreciation go to Joni Albright for her commendable leadership in getting the presentation organized and conducted. Many thanks also go to the group members for their dedication in making the Stations alive.

Community Journey of the Cross: I would like to express my special thanks to all those who participated in this service on Good Friday organized by 7 churches in the town. A special word of appreciation goes to Erin Clark for singing 'Were You There' and to Aaron Hays for playing the music. Many thanks to Mark Novak for carrying the Cross to the next church.

Divine Mercy Sunday SpecialDivine Mercy Sunday:

“Our magnificent Gospel today declares that there is no greater manifestation of the Divine Mercy than the forgiveness of sins. The risen Lord appears to his disciples and greet them with “Shalom,” peace. And then the extraordinary commission: “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.” Jesus’ mercy is communicated to his disciples, who in turn are sent to communicate it to the world. This is the foundation for the Sacrament of Penance, which has existed in the Church from that moment to the present day as the privileged vehicle of the Divine mercy.” Today’s Gospel also emphasizes the importance of Faith in the all-pervading Presence of the Risen Lord of Mercy. To believe without having seen is every later Christian’s experience. We are invited to receive liberation from doubts and hesitation by surrendering our lives to the Risen Lord of Mercy. Let us ask God our Father to open our hearts so that we may receive His Mercy in the form of the Holy Spirit. [The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC: A – Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world. B – Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us. C – Complete trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that our reception of the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive. (Bishop Robert E. Barron)]

St. Faustina and the Image of the Divine Mercy: St. Faustina of Poland is the well-known apostle of Divine Mercy. On the 30th of April 2000, at 10:00 AM, on the Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday, the Feast requested by Jesus in His communications with St. Faustina), His Holiness Pope St. John Paul II celebrated the Eucharist in Saint Peter’s Square and proceeded to the canonization of Blessed Sister Faustina. [John Paul himself would be canonized on this same Feast Day – April 27 in 2014 – by Pope Francis.] At the canonization of St. Faustina, Saint John Paul II said, “Believing in the love of God means believing in His mercy.” Saint Faustina invites us by the witness of her life to keep our faith and hope fixed on God the Father, rich in mercy, who saved us by the precious Blood of His Son. During her short life, the Lord Jesus assigned to St. Faustina three basic tasks: 1. to pray for souls, entrusting them to God’s incomprehensible Mercy; 2. to tell the world about God’s generous Mercy; 3. to start a new movement in the Church focusing on God’s Mercy. gush forth two rays, one red and one white.

At the canonization of St. Faustina, Pope St. John Paul II said: “The cross, even after the Resurrection of the Son of God speaks, and never ceases to speak, of God the Father, who is absolutely faithful to His eternal love for man. ... Believing in this love means believing in mercy.” “The Lord of Divine Mercy,” a painting of Jesus based on the vision given to St. Faustina, shows Jesus raising his right hand in a gesture of blessing, with His left hand on his heart from which gushed forth two rays, one red and one white. The picture contains the message, “Jesus, I trust in You!” (Jezu ufam Tobie). The rays streaming out have symbolic meaning: red for the Blood of Jesus, which is the life of souls and white for the Baptismal water which justifies souls. The whole image is symbolic of the mercy, forgiveness, and love of God. (Fr. A. Kadavil)

Sister Faustina Kowalska was an ordinary nun who did the duties of a cook, doorkeeper, and gardener. Born in Glogowiec, Poland, in 1905, she had only three years of formal education. As a teenager, she worked as a domestic servant for a few years. Then in 1925, she joined the religious congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy. Sister Faustina lived only 13 years as a nun. She died of tuberculosis on October 5, 1938, at the age of 33. However, pretty soon, she began to be known all over the world as she had been chosen by the Lord Jesus to spread the message of Divine Mercy. According to her Diary, Jesus appeared to her several times between 1930 to 1938. During these apparitions, Jesus asked her to remind the world about the merciful love of God toward everyone. Jesus also gave her a chaplet to be said every day. At night on Sunday, February 22, 1931, Jesus appeared wearing a white garment with red and pale rays emanating from his heart. During that time, Jesus said to her, “Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You (in Polish: Jezu, ufam Tobie). I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel and then throughout the world. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish.” Accordingly, she arranged for the painting this image by an artist under her direction. Sister Faustina also heard the Lord telling her to dedicate a feast day to the Divine Mercy. It was in the context of this request of the Lord that the Church, through a decree dated May 23, 2000, instituted the Feast of Divine Mercy to be celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter. Pope John Paul II beatified Sr. Faustina on April 18, 1993. On the following day, he said during a general audience, “God has spoken to us through the spiritual wealth of Blessed Sister Faustina Kowalska. She left to the world the great message of Divine Mercy and an incentive to complete self-sacrifice to the Creator.” John Paul II canonized Sr. Faustina on April 30, 2000, the second Sunday of Easter. According to the Diary of Sr. Faustina, Jesus said the following regarding the Feast of Divine Mercy: “Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.”

As we celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy this weekend, let us approach the Lord and ask him for the forgiveness of all our sins. May the Lord bless all of us. (Fr. Jose CMI).

Divine Mercy Devotion: On the feast of Divine Mercy, we are having Benediction at 3 pm with chanting of Divine Mercy on April 16. Reciting or chanting the Divine Mercy chaplets at 3 pm is very special chiefly on the feast day to receive God’s mercy in abundance. All are welcome!

Knights of Columbus Scholarship

The Hannibal Knights of Columbus Council 907 is once again offering a $500 scholarship to a graduating senior from Holy Family Parish. Eligible students must be graduating from high school and planning to continue their education at any college or technical school.

For more information or to request an application contact Mark Dowil at mdowil54@gmail.com

Deadline to apply is April 23.

We all are wounded by experiences of imperfect love. We also are tempted to demand from God proof of His fidelity and goodness. We are like St. Thomas the Apostle who, on that second Sunday of Easter, demands proof of the Lord's resurrection. "Unless I see the mark of the nail ... I will not believe." Our science, technology and mathematics can indeed prove a great deal. But there are some things that require trusting another person. We prove promises of love only by trusting. St. Thomas indeed saw the wounds of Jesus and believed. But there is an even greater blessing for us who simply trust Him — and all the truths the Church proclaims — because of the trustworthiness of the Risen One who speaks. This week let's trust Jesus without seeing him.
