Today’s readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They’re about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things.

Most of all, though, they’re about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for what He gives you, or what He takes away? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be?

Read your Bible. Say your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God — every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready. - Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

STEWARDSHIP...

Meanwhile, Martha was absorbed in the many tasks around the house. At one point, Martha approached Jesus and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do all the work? Tell her to help me." But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by a thousand things; but only one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her." - Luke 10:40-42

Jesus wants our hearts before our hands. He calls us to step out of active anxiety and into a peaceful presence with Him. This doesn't mean abandoning service, but rather letting our work flow from a place of prayer and peace.

"It's very important, and with great urgency, to touch the suffering Jesus – the needy Jesus...Your change, just a little change, can make a big difference in one's life."

— Fr. Joseph Luzindana

Associate pastor of our Cathedral of St. Joseph; ordained in the Archdiocese of Kampala, Uganda
