Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Did you know there are churches in Rome older than St. Peter's? St. John Lateran is one of four major basilicas in the Eternal City, and it is by far the oldest. The land was donated by an ancient Roman family to the Emperor Constantine, who in turn gave it to the Church. For hundreds of years, St. John Lateran was the "mother church." Popes lived on the grounds through the 14th century. The church itself suffered from pillaging by invaders, fires, and earthquakes. It has been restored and rebuilt five times since the 300s. On this feast, we remember more than a building. We celebrate the resiliency of our faith. Though trials may come in our parishes, personal lives, and the world, the Church endures through the grace of Jesus Christ.

In our churches today — whether they mirror the basilica’s grandeur or embrace humble simplicity — we experience architectural symbols of Christ’s risen body. It is no accident we call them “churches”: they make visible in brick-and-mortar Christ’s body which is made up of the living stones we call Christians. Each church building, like St. John Lateran in Rome, or St. Peter’s, or any other, is meant to be a vibrant sign of Christ’s resurrected body. We should cherish and protect our churches as places where heaven touches earth, where we, as a community, are raised to the fullness of life in Christ.

The Giving Team

Recruiting the Giving Team

If this is your first time hosting Welcome, it is going to take some work on the part of the parish to recruit amazing team members to lead an amazing Welcome Weekend.

The people who will likely make great members of a Giving Team are typically those individuals who are more active within the parish. Ideally, these individuals may also have a large circle of influence and are willing to encourage people to attend the Welcome Weekend in the future.

Hopefully you have a list of people in mind who would make wonderful members of the Giving Team. Now it's time to get out there and recruit them!

We know that asking people to commit to getting involved in anything at the parish, especially things that require a time commitment, can be a challenge. For parishes just beginning Welcome, the first Giving Team will probably take the most effort to recruit. Chapter ten of the Team Guide outlines some tips and tricks for recruiting parishioners to attend the Welcome Weekend. These recruitment techniques can also be used for the formation of an initial Giving Team.

Keep in mind, as Welcome grows and flourishes at your parish (because it will!), recruiting people to get involved will become easier and easier. In addition, the former Receiving Team will generally make up the next Giving Team following each Welcome Weekend, so you should only need to go through this recruitment process once.

We know recruitment of any kind can often sound intimidating. Trust that Jesus is on your side and will lead and guide you. The Dynamic Catholic Welcome Team is here for you, too. You CAN do this!
